OLD DR. GRINDLE,

Next week launches the outdoor athletic season. Wednesday will see the Irish-American Club hold carnival at Celtic Park, and Saturday the winged foot of the New York A. C. will be to the front at Travers Island.

Mat Halpin, manager of the Olympic team, was first man to touch American soil yesterday. Martin Cowan, manager of Celtic Park, handled the first prize, a big silver shield, which was tossed off the boat by Martin Sheridan.

J. J. Danaher, of the Xaviers, shapes like a record breaker. He only lacks a little staying power to beat the best of them over a "century."
